A photograph of a bedroom interior. The wall behind the bed is covered in a large-scale marbled wallpaper with swirling patterns in gold, black, and white. To the left, a window is dressed with blue and white chevron-striped curtains. In the foreground, a bed with a zebra-print upholstered headboard is made with white linens and several pillows in various patterns, including stripes and solid colors. A nightstand next to the bed holds a brown lamp with a matching shade, a small decorative arrangement of dried leaves and flowers, and a framed picture. The overall aesthetic is sophisticated and modern.
